Digital driver licence

Leave your plastic in your pocket with a Victorian digital driver licence through Service Victoria. It's an easy-to-use ID on your phone.

A licence that fits your lifestyle

The digital driver licence is a new version of your licence you can use on your phone. Some businesses are still gearing up to accept digital, so keep your card handy just in case.

Private, safe and secure

With a digital driver licence, you control what you share, and who you share it with. The Service Victoria app keeps your identity safe using state-of-the-art security features.

Your digital cards in one place

Store your ID on your phone. We're bringing driver licences and all of your vital government documents to the Service Victoria app.
